

The Princess who hated green beans.

Written and illustrated by Katie

Once upon a time there was a princess named Olivia. She didn't know that she didn't like green beans.

OLIVIA

One day her Mom was cooking turkey and rice with green beans. Her Mom said to Olivia, "Would you like some green beans dear"?

Yes I would said Olivia.

Olivia tried the green beans, then she spit them out! She said, "Mom I don't like those".

Her mother said, "I am sorry dear but you have to eat them".

So Olivia ate the turkey and the rice but didn't eat the green beans. Her mother sent her to her room.

Olivia moped inside her room. "Your father is angry" said her mom.

Why" said Olivia.

Because I told him you don't like green beans and do you know what he said? He said green beans are apart of life.

But all that she got for her birthday presents were green bean seeds and green beans!!! Even the cake had green beans on it!

Well when she opened up the green
