

My Journey to America

By Iyeko

My name is Iyeko ~~Amara~~. I was born on February 1st, 2008 in Abuja, Nigeria. I have a little sister named Ojone. My mom's name is Ojoma and my dad's name is Abu. The name of my school in Nigeria is Deo Gratias International School. Some of my classmates were Favor, David, Gold, and Abubakar.

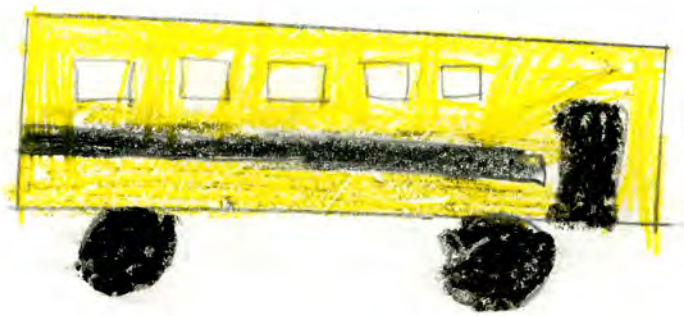

As a little child, my daddy wasn't always around. My mommy took care of me and my sister, and took us to school. One day my mommy said we were going to America to live with my daddy. At the airport we said good bye to my aunt and my cousins, Jason and Jaden, and my grandma.

When we got on the airplane, I got a little scared but my sister was more scared. After a while, I became relaxed and flying became fun. When we saw my daddy, Ojone started crying, but I ran to my daddy and he carried me up in the air.

Big Family all together
